Think about your conversations and learning today and respond to the prompts below. Prior to posting a response, be sure to review the “Checklist for Blog Responses” for criteria.

1. What influenced the financial decisions of the characters? Did the values of the character play a part in their decisions?
2. After completing this activity, why do you think individuals consider values an intrinsic part of making a financial decision?
3. What is a question you would like to ask or something else you would like to learn more about after today’s lesson?
